

Teacher's Day Celebrated at Sainik School

Teacher's Day was celebrated with usual vigour and enthusiasm at the premises of Sainik School Bijapur.

Dr. K.P. Sreenath, Registrar(Administration), Akka Mahadevi Women's University, Vijayapur was the Chief Guest on the occasion. The programme began with the lighting of the Ceremonial lamp and garlanding the portrait of Dr.Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. The school choir sang the invocation song.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr.Sreenath recalled the contribution of Dr. Radhakrishnan to the field of education and philosophy. He revived the old tradition of honouring the teachers by declaring his birthday as teacher's day, he said.

He exhorted the teachers to keep themselves updated as students have become smart and well-informed since they are exposed to modern gadgets and internet. Teachers have significant role to play as they mould their personalities during their formative years and form everlasting impressions in their minds, he said.

Sanskrit teacher Mr.KG Mahesh and students Cadet Shravan Kumar and Cadet Ayub M. also spoke on the occasion. Mr. PM Shetty was the Master of Ceremony.

Principal Col Tamojeet Biswas presented a memento to the Chief Guest. Vice Principal Sqn Ldr KJM Reddy, Administrative Officer Sqn Ldr A Muralidharan and Senior Master GSR Murthy were present on the occasion.
